Dear Mr Woodhouse.

Just a hasty line to let you know the postbag starts on its journey North either tonight or tomorrow morning, addressed to Leeds City Art-Gallery and the packers will advise the Curator (Mr Rotherham) when it starts. That looks rather like the last lap. If you have a minute you might drop me a line to let me know it has arrived, been unpacked and that everything is all right. I hope it meets with the approval of Leeds!

Yours in haste

Howard Lamerille
